From the Bloomsburg High School.

The Class of 1900 Has Reached the Time When Each Member Will Have a Chance to Commence Their Battles With the World.

The ninth annual commencement of the Bloomsburg High School has come and gone, and with it has terminated, so far as this institution is concerned, the school life of eighteen members. The exercises were of a very interesting nature, and attended by very large audiences. Each program was rendered in a manner that showed earnestness and zeal on the part of the instructors, and aptness and enthusiasm on the part of the students. A full report of the exercises follows:

ORATORICAL CONTEST.

The third annual contest in oratory, given by the members of the Junior class of the Bloomsburg High School, was held Monday evening and in all respects was a great success.

The High School is to be congratulated upon its orchestra. The boys, under the direction of Mr. Frank Hower, rendered their numbers in fine style.

The vocal numbers were under the direction of Mr. Yetter and were well executed.

The contestants, nine in number, acquitted themselves admirably.

The opening number is always the most difficult, but Miss Maude Rupert was perfectly at ease as she told cleverly and brightly the story of "The Judgment Day."

Everyone is interested in "The Same Old Story," and Miss Mamie Donahue held the interest of her audience as she charmingly and gracefully told of the part a Queen Anne cottage played in the "story" of Lorraine and Bertie.

"The Boat Race" is always interesting, and Miss Beulah MacPherson was quite equal to the occasion, as with ease and a charming grace of manner, she told her story.

Lovers' retreats are various, and Miss Geraldine Bomboy quite won her audience as she told with much humor and naturalness the story of the "Goblin Gate."

"The Fiddle Told" was the title of the next selection, and the pathetic story so tenderly and sweetly told by Miss Olive Moyer quite won the hearts of her audience.

We are all familiar with the old maxim "honesty is the best policy," and Miss Teresa Turner convinced her audience of this as she told in a most bright and engaging manner of "Ananias the Second."

There are many times when it is not safe to allow the assistance of a third party, particularly in such affairs as Bunner deals with in his story of "A Sisterly Scheme." Miss Julia Krug's rendering of the selection was so natural and bright that the entire audience enjoyed the situation immensely.

Miss Minnie Deily captivated her audience as she related "How Tom Sawyer Whitewashed His Fence." Miss Deily's work sparkled with humor from beginning to end.

The closing reading, "A Roman Valentine," was ably and gracefully handled by Miss Emma Taylor.

The closing number, a pantomime, "Comin' Thro' the Rye," by the Junior girls, was received with rounds of applause. Miss Natalie Foulke sang the song charmingly and the girls told their silent story very gracefully.

COMMENCEMENT.

The commencement exercises were held in the Opera House Tuesday night. Such was the demand for seats this year that every one had been sold nearly a week ago. In fact, it would have required hundreds more to accommodate those who desired to attend the exercises. Tuesday night's audience was one of the most orderly, attentive and intelligent ever assembled in the Opera House. The exercises began at 8:25 o'clock with a galop, "The Ringmaster," by the High School Orchestra. Shortly after the orchestra began to play the curtain arose, revealing the supervising principal, with Dr. G. H. Hemingway to his right, Mr. Joseph Garrison, President of the School Board, and the other members to his left, the eighteen charming graduates in front, the gentlemen of the class to the left, and the ladies, to the right. The ladies were clothed in white, the gentlemen in black. The decorations were plain, but sufficient. The graduates' presents were handsome and valuable. The salutatory, by Lucy Harris Brobst, who had been given this nonor because she stood second in the class, and the valedictory, by Martha Elizabeth Dreisbach, who had been awarded this honor because she stood first in the class, were well composed and very appropriate. The class history, full of wit and humor, was read by Mary Amanda Corell, with the best of expression. Edith Emma Keller read a review of "Richard Carvel," which showed much originality. One of the most interesting numbers on the program was an oration on "The Ancient Greek," by Donald Grant Herring By his noble bearing, his clear enunciation, and his comprehension of his subject, he surprised and captivated his audience.

The two numbers, "The Gossips in Session," and a "Shakespearean Conference," were magnificently handled by those who took the parts. It is not possible, in this limited space, to commend each one individually. All did well. The parts were difficult, and the easy, natural way, in which they were rendered, showed most earnest application and careful training.

The solo by Natalie Jacoby Foulke, and the piano overture by Laura Sheldon Moyer and Eleanor Foster Wilson were first class and elicted hearty applause. Joseph Garrison, President of the Board, presented the diplomas, preceding the presentation with the following neat and appropriate speech:

PRESENTATION OF DIPLOMAS.

Graduates of the Public Schools of Bloomsburg, Ladies and Gentlemen:

This is an important epoch in your early history. Important, because it is the closing chapter of your public school life.

It is another mile-stone along the great highway to eternity; yet it is one of those pleasing events that, like a beautiful picture, will in after life occupy a prominent place in memory's gallery.

For months past, I presume, you have been looking forward with eager eye and pleasing anticipation of this happy event.

To you it is more than the closing of a school term, it is graduation day; it is crowning day. To graduate with honor from any institution of learning may be regarded as a heroic achievement.

During the past decade you have been slowly, steadily and patiently climbing the hill of science. Day by day, and month by month, you have been storing the mind with useful knowledge, and by perservance and self-denial, by close application to study, you have succeeded in reaching this evincible position, and to-night you stand here as victors in a great conflict.

Loving friends and kind instructors deeply solicitous in your behalf, and with an honest longing desire for your success, have watched with unabated interest your progress day by day, your promotions from one grade to another until they have seen you reach the highest round, the altitude of your aspirations in the public school. Many of them are here to-night to honor and congratulate you on the achievements you have made.

During all these years, the Board of Education has not been unmindful of what you were doing nor unconscious of the progress you were making. Through the kindness of your worthy principal we have frequently had exhibitions of your work for inspection. We are not here tonight as a Board to wreath your brows with fading laurels in honor of conquests made or victories won, but rather to stimulate and incite you to still greater activity in the prosecution of the work which you have so grandly and so nobly begun.

Think not for one moment that your education is finished. Be not content with present mental attainments, but plume your pinions for higher flight.

Strive by every laudable means within your power to acquire such an education as will enable you to fill with credit to yourselves, the highest and most important positions of trust in county, state or nation.

Place yourselves abreast with the spirit of the times by laying hold of the mighty possibilities within your grasp.

The demands of conscience; yea, the demands of the spirit of the age are, that you not only do the best work of which you are capable, but that you make yourselves capable of doing the best work. Let thoroughness and a high standard of perfection be characteristic of everything you do, and remember it is not so much what you say as what you do that will immortalize your name.

The spring-time of your youth will soon be merged into the summer-time of manhood and womanhood.

Let not its golden opportunities and precious moments pass by unimproved, but

"Write on them the thought immortal,
Grave upon them deeds sublime
That will meet you at the portal
Of the sweet celestial clime."

You are the architects of your own fortunes. You are builders, building day by day a temple for eternity. Let the chief corner-stone of that edifice be a good character. Let its walls be garnished and embellished with such precious stones as virtue, truth, honesty, integrity, industry, sobriety and Christianity.

Your graduation brings you to the very threshold of the twentieth century. A vast, untried, unexplored future, with all its untold realities, lies just before you. Launch out on its broad waters with a brave and fearless heart. Resolve that the pilot of your little bark shall be the World's Redeemer: that your map and chart and compass shall be the Word of God; and that your harbor of final destination shall be the haven of eternal rest. I recommend you unto God and to the Word of His Grace which is able to build you up, and to give you a home among all them that are sanctified.

Dr. G. H. Hemingway, one of the three judges of the contest, of which Messrs. Geo E. Elwell and H. A. M'Killip were the other two, presented the prize to the successful and happy contestants. Minnie Deily was awarded the first prize; Teresa Turney the second; and Geraldine Bomboy the third. The Century Club gave Edith E. Keller for her review of Richard Carvel a valuable prize of two beautiful volumes of Hugh Wynne. Prof. L. P. Sterner presented Donald G. Herring for his excellence in Latin and Greek, a Latin and Greek dictionary.

Martha Elizabeth Dreisbach, Lucy Harris Brobst, Edith Emma Keller, Eleanor Foster Wilson, Mary Gertrude Belig, Laura Sheldon Moyer, Dora Estelle Jury, David Waller Neyhard, Mary Amanda Corell, Lydia May Rhodomoyer, Elizabeth Alice Hidlay, Benjamin Raymond Yohe, Harriet Cordelia House, Natalie Jacoby Foulke, Bertha Ina Umstead, Donald Grant Herring, George Alexander and Joseph Cohen.

BLASTING IN THE FOURTH WARD.

Wm. Yost's Residence Damaged by a Flying Missile.

After several ineffective attempts to break into small pieces, a huge car wheel, at the Bloomsburg Car Shops Saturday afternoon, with the machine intended for that purpose, dynamite was resorted to. Under the direction of Harvey Giger, a hole was bored into the wheel and a stick of the powerful explosive inserted. The fuse was ignited and the men hurried to a place of safety. In a few seconds the explosion took place and fragments of iron went flying in every direction. One piece, about five pounds in weight, took a direct course to Wm. Yost's residence and restaurant, and striking the building about in the center, plowed its way through into the sitting room. The plaster was torn loose in several places. Mrs. Yost had, only a few minutes before, been sitting by the window, and in the path of the death dealing missile. She went out on the back porch and entering the house again was about to resume the chair when the explosion occurred.

Another piece of iron landed on the roof of Mrs. Barton's store, on the opposite side of the street from Yost's but owing to the distance traversed, its destructive propensities had been exhausted and no damage was done.

Passed Away.

Miss Sarah A. Wertman, daughter of the late Benjamin Wertman, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. George F. Kindt, in Greenwood township on Monday, aged sixty years, four months and seven days. The funeral occurred yesterday. Services were conducted by Rev. M. E. McLinn of Bloomsburg, and interment in Orangeville Cemetery.

She has gone to meet her loved ones
That have passed the waters o'er
But we hope to meet her later
On the Blessed Heavenly Shore. X.

Edwards—Conner.

Miss Anna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. I. L. Edwards, of Benton, and Mr. Peter Harding Conner, of Bloomsburg, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the home of the bride's parents, at 10:30 a. m. last week, Wednesday. Rev. J. C. Wilhelm, pastor of the M. E. Church, performed the ceremony, in the presence only of the immediate family and relatives.

They Say

That a man talks about the weather because he doesn't know enough to talk about anything else. That's about the case with the man who has always been going to a tailor for his clothes. He pays about 40 per cent. too much, but he doesn't know about any other clothes. Show him one of our Spring Suits and you have started him off on a new line of thought. Common sense, is it not, to get as much for your money as you can?

You Must Remember

That the "wholesale tailors" employ tailors, can buy the best fabrics, have straight connections with the most authoritative fashion centres, and can make a suit—because they make many—at half the merchant tailor's price.

Look Into This Thing.

Come, in, some day, and permit us to show you what a ready-to-wear garment, of the kind we sell, is like. You never saw ready-to-put-on clothes like our Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes, because there are none so good.

Baby Caps.

From 10c. to $1.00. Take the one for 10c. Neatly trimmed, well made. Why you couldn't make the ruffles for the price, let alone the other materials.

Hats.

Prices range from 50c. to $1.75.

Shirt Waists.

The man who invented shirt waists ought to have a monument erected in his honor. Cool and comfortable, and withal, tasty and stylish. A woman with a dark skirt and several waists has a whole wardrobe. Our line has all the season's latest colorings and weaves.

For those who wish to have their waists made to order, we have a tasty line of allover embroideries—50c. to $3.00 per yard. Laces, from 1c. to 75c. yer yard.

Have you seen the line of bust perfectors? No other place in town carries them.

Carpets and Furniture.

You know the old adage about the proof of the pudding. We have been telling you that our stock is larger than all others combined, our qualities the best, and our prices the lowest. Well, you must have found these assertions to be true, FOR OUR BUSINESS FROM JANUARY 1ST TO MAY 1ST,

In Carpets and Furniture,

was more than all of 1899 put together. Doesn't that tell the story? Where else can you get a wool velvet

Made, Laid and Lined for 90c.?

Our competitors are hunting around for a piece of goods to take its place. They cannot do it.

We handle the Hartford Axminsters, the best made, Whittal Body Brussels. In fact, only standard makes are here. Ingrains, we show you 25 patterns, from 12½c up. You will make a mistake if you buy your carpets without consulting us.

Groceries.

We don't claim to do all the business, but we think we do more than any other store in town. There must be some good reason why our business increased four-fold in 1899 and is increasing more rapidly since January 1st. May we serve you?

END OF CONGRESS.

Closing Scenes In the Senate and House.

Senators Warmly Discuss the Armor Plate Question.

Representatives at Odds Over a Single Item In the Sundry Civil Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The members of both branches of congress looked tired and wan as they reassembled this morning after their arduous work of yesterday, the house meeting at 8 o'clock and the senate at 10. While the sessions lasted practically all night, the exciting scenes and incidents of former days were missing.

The senate held a short executive session at 11:40, after which conference reports on the sundry civil appropriation, the Naval academy and the general deficiency bills were presented and adopted. The sundry civil bill was a complete agreement except one item relating to Nevada claims. The naval conferees were deadlocked on the armor plate provision. There was a complete agreement on the deficiency bill. The Military academy bill was passed and sent to the president. At 2:30 this morning the senate went into executive session, after which a recess was taken until 10 o'clock.

Seven hours after the close of last night's session, at 10 a. m. today, the senate reconvened to prepare for final adjournment. A score of senators only were present, but the chamber rapidly filled. The naval and sundry civil appropriation bills remained in conference, all others having been agreed to.

The usual routine business of the senate practically was abandoned today. Only two or three new bills and resolutions were presented. One of the latter was introduced by Mr. Gallinger (N. H.) and directed the committee on civil service to investigate the charges made against the administration of the appraiser's office at the port of New York. It was agreed to without objection.

Mr. Carter secured the passage of a bill providing for the increase to $375,000 of the limit of cost for the public building at Helena, Mon.

ARMOR PLATE CONTROVERSY.

Mr. Hale presented a conference report on the naval appropriation bill. It was a disagreement upon all questions that have been in dispute for three or four days. Mr. Hale explained that the armor plate question was the great stumbling block to agreement. He explained that the house conferees refused to accede to the senate proposition, and the senate was confronted, therefore, with the same question substantially as had been presented in the beginning. No price had been agreed upon by the conferees because the house conferees believed the price should be left to the discretion of the secretary of the navy. The house conferees insisted that their proposition should be passed upon by a vote of the senate.

Mr. Hale thought there was force in this demand. He said Mr. Penrose had a proposition to offer which he would be glad to have the senate pass upon. Mr. Penrose then offered the following proposition:

"That the secretary of the navy is hereby authorized to procure by contract armor of the best quality for any or all vessels above referred to, provided such contracts can be made at a price which, in his judgment, is reasonable and equitable, but in case he is unable to make contracts for armor under the above conditions he is hereby authorized and directed to procure a site for and to erect thereon a factory for the manufacture of armor, and the sum of $4,000,000 is hereby appropriated toward the erection of said factory."

Mr. Butler insisted that what he wanted was a government armor plant, and he would be willing to pay almost any price for armor that is needed now provided that the construction of an armor plant by the government were made mandatory.

Mr. Chandler objected to leaving the matter to the discretion of the secretary of the navy. Congress ought not, he maintained, shift the responsibility to the shoulders of the secretary of the navy. That would be a cowardly thing to do. Congress alone should adjust this question.

Mr. Platt (Conn.) favored the proposition offered by Mr. Penrose. It was in his belief a question whether congress at this session should pass a naval appropriation bill or not. He maintained that the house was quite as powerful a body in this matter as the senate. It had quite as much right to its opinion as had the senate.

TILLMAN ATTACKS PENROSE.

The matter had to be settled "now and here," said he, and, while the senate might regard the house as obstinate, it was not possible for either branch to be coerced by the other. Under the proposition of Mr. Penrose he was satisfied the government would get its armor for $445 per ton.

Mr. Tillman attacked the amendment offered by Mr. Penrose.

"The chairman of the naval committee" (Hale), said he, "has declared that the government is being robbed and that the armor trust has a knife at the government's throat. And now it is proposed to let them cut the government's throat. We are face to face with a scandal as infamous as any in our history, second not even to the great Credit Mobilier scandal."

"I resent that statement," interjected Mr. Penrose vehemently and with evident feeling. "I resent the statement that there is any suspicion of scandal in this or any amendment which I propose. I consider my notion of the proper way for the government to transact its business to be on as high a standard as any set up by the senator from South Carolina."

"I am making no personal allusions," replied Mr. Tillman. "I am simply stating facts that are indisputable. The influences behind the house in this matter are the shipbuilders and the armor manufacturers."

Mr. Teller denounced the amendment of Mr. Penrose as a "disgraceful proposition." "As the senator from New Hampshire said," continued Mr. Teller, "it would be cowardly and craven on the part of congress to surrender legislative authority and prerogatives to the executive branch of the government. It seems to me there may be in it a tinge of corruption. This is a time for plain talk. The American people believe and I believe that there is a great political combine behind this proposition to surrender our authority."

CLOSING SCENES IN THE HOUSE.

When the house reassembled, the conference report on the general deficiency bill, showing a complete agreement, was presented and agreed to. Mr. Cannon submitted the conference report on the sundry civil bill, showing the item covering the claims of Nevada to be the only one in dispute.

Among the important items struck out were those for the memorial bridge across the Potomac river, for a revenue cutter on the St. Mary's river and a lighthouse vessel for the Pacific coast, for a branch soldiers' home in Idaho, salary of woman commissioner at the unveiling of Lafayette's statue in Paris, legation buildings in Korea and Siam and statue of Rochambeau.

Among the important items retained were those placing under the supervision of the secretary of treasury the execution of the Chinese exclusion and immigration laws, gauging water supply of certain streams, $100,000; providing plans for the enlargement of the White House and development of surrounding grounds, appropriating $25,000 for South pass of the Mississippi river, providing for the settlement of Spanish war claims arising from military use and occupation. The Mississippi, Missouri and Columbia river items were retained, the Mississippi item for the lower river being reduced to $2,250,000. The provision as to state claims was compromised by an amendment that certain federal claims against these states would not be prosecuted. The forest reserve provision was amended that lien land selections shall hereafter be made from surveyed lands.

Mr. Cannon explained that the senate had added about $5,000,000 to the original $61,000,000 of this bill and that by this report the senate yielded about $1,000,000 and the house $4,000,000. Considerable debate followed on the various items.

The sundry civil conference report was agreed to, and on the one item still open, appropriating $462,000 for claims of Nevada, Mr. Newlands (Nev.) moved that the house concur with the senate amendment. This brought on a sharp debate on state claims, Mr. Moody (Mass.) urging that the Nevada claim would set a precedent for other like claims, aggregating about $5,000,000.

Mr. Moody contended that the payment of Nevada's claim would establish a dangerous precedent. It was for extra pay given to Nevada's soldiers during the civil war. California, if this claim were paid, would have a valid claim for $4,000,000 and Oregon for nealy $500,000.

Mr. Newlands' motion to concur in the senate amendment was lost—45 to 97. The house further insisted on the amendment, and the bill was sent back to conference.

DR. STORRS' DEATH.

Noted Clergyman Passes Away In Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Rev. Richard Salter Storrs, the venerable pastor emeritus of the Church of the Pilgrims, Brooklyn, is dead.

Mr. Storrs had been in an unconscious condition for about 24 hours. His death was due to a complication of ailments incident to old age, his final illness dating from last October. From this illness, however, he rallied sufficiently to attend the annual meeting of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions in Boston, and his last appearance in the pulpit of the Church of the Pilgrims was Sunday, April 22. On that date his successor, Rev. Dr. Harry P. Dewey, preached for the first time after being called to the pastorate.

Richard Salter Storrs was born in Braintree, Mass., in 1821. He was educated at Amherst college. He studied law, but forsook this profession for the ministry, taking a course at Andover seminary, where he graduated in 1845. He became pastor of a Congregational church in Brookline, Mass., where he remained for a year. He was installed as pastor of the Church of the Pilgrims in Brooklyn on Nov. 19, 1846.

For many years Dr. Storrs was president of the American Home Missionary society. He was the author of a large number of works on religious and historical matters. In 1845 he married Miss Mary Elwell Jenks, granddaughter of John Phillips, the first mayor of Boston. Mrs. Storrs died in 1898.

In 1896 there was a ten days' celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Dr. Storrs' pastorate of the Church of the Pilgrims, a loving cup being presented to him at that time by the Manhattan Association of Congregational Ministers.

Children between 5 and 12 years of age half rate.

These tickets will be sold and good going June 15th to 19th inclusive, and will be good for return until June 26th inclusive.

The Children's Homoepathic Hospital.

The above named institution, located at Franklin and Thompson Streets, Philadelphia, is central to the city, is not by any means limited in purpose or scope to Philadelphia, and is the only exclusively Children's Homœopathic Hospital in our whole country. It is open to all children under fourteen years of age who are in need, without regard to nationality, race or religion, and equally good care and attention are given to those who are unable to pay as to those who can pay more or less for services rendered.

Its managers now find it necessary to make urgent appeal to those interested in its charitable and beneficent work. Apart from its out-patient department, in which nearly three thousand patients are treated each month, and its emergency or accident cases, numbering from seventy to one hundred cases each month, there are from forty to fifty children patients to be constantly cared for, the total of the household being seventy or more persons.

The pressure upon its resources for new buildings has seriously lessened the income for maintenance, so that many cases often urgent and always deserving have to be refused admittance. The running expenses are not far from fifteen hundred dollars a month. The facilities at command are beyond compare. The entire plant is equal to the best. The only lack is means with which to provide for the sick and suffering poor children who piteously beg for relief. The needs are exceedingly great.

The managers look to a generous public throughout this state to come to its immediate relief. Any supplies in the line of groceries, provisions, fruits, canned goods, butter, eggs, potatoes, coal, etc., such as is required in any ordinary family, will be welcomed, and may be sent direct to the institution by express or freight. Cash donations, also, may be sent to the Hospital, Franklin and Thompson Streets, and prompt acknowledgement will be made, and any desired information furnished by those in charge. When visiting the city, be sure to call any day at convenience and see how perfect the arrangements are for the welfare of sick children.

Reduced Rates to Philadelphia.

Via Pennsylvania Railroad, Account Republican National Convention.

On account of the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia, June 19, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Philadelphia from all stations on its line at rate of one fare for the round trip (minimum rate 50 cents). Tickets will be sold and good going June 15 to 19, inclusive, and returning to June 26, inclusive. 5-31 3t

As this is the season for shearing sheep the following advice from wool dealers should be read by every sheep owner: There seems to be a growing tendency with farmers to tie their wool with sisal or binding twine in the absence of proper wool twine. Wool so tied will be rejected by dealers, and many manufacturers will not buy it at any price because of the hard fibre that is liable to adhere to the yarn, and enter into the cloth. Many times one or two such fibres will cause the rejection of a whole piece of voluable cioth; therefore the habit should be stopped, as the growers will be the losers. Better not tie wool at all than with binding twine.

It's not a new variety of headache. It's the old pain consequent on conditions which result from study, confinement, and careless eating. It is only one symptom of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures headaches by curing the diseases which cause them.

"I was troubled with very frequent headaches, often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Miss Mary Belle Summerton, of San Diego, Duval Co., Texas. "Bowels were irregular, and my stomach and liver seemed continually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, and sometimes absolutely nothing, for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed so run-down that I feared a severe sick spell and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and did so with such satisfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to undertake the duties attending public school life, and contracted to do so. I most heartily advise those suffering with indigestion, and its attendant evils, to give this great medicine a fair trial."

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, June 28, 1900.

The Republican bluff at anti-trust legislation is being carried to the extent of devoting three days of the time of the House to speaking and voting on the alleged anti-trust resolution reported by the votes of the Republican members of the House Judicary Committee, and the bill amending the Sherman anti-trust law. The Democratic caucus decided to oppose the resolution unless it was amended so as to srike out the encroachment upon States' rights, and to offer as a substitute the Littlefield bill. If Republicans had been sincere in the desire to enact anti-trust legislation, they would not have waited until the closing days of the session, when it is impossible for the legislation to get acted upon by the senate. It was held back purposely to prevent action by the Senate. The object being to supply stump speakers with arguments to use with anti-trust voters, while the big leaders will pat the trust magnates on the back and assure them that the action of the House was for campaign use only and has no chance of going through the Senate. These points have been brought out by the Democrats of the House and they will be kept before the people by Democratic editors and speakers.

Representative Richardson of Tenn., offered the following resolution in the House Democratic caucus and it was adopted: "Whereas, there is known to be a large and growing surplus in the Treasury, over and above the necessities of the goverment arising from the taxes levied and collected under the war tax act of 1898: therefore, Resolved, That we favor the reduction of the taxes provided for in said act, and we do not think the present session of Congress should adjourn until said taxes shall have been repealed as to certain articles and reduced as to others, until there is a total reduction in the aggregate of at least 40 per centum. We pledge ourselves at all times to support any measure or measures providing for such reduction." Before the campaign is over the Republican manager will be sorry that they allowed Congress to adjourn without reducing war taxation.

∴

Orders of court are issued to be obeyed, not ignored. Justice Barnard, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, has impressed that fact upon the mind of Mr. E. G. Siggers by fining him $100 and costs, for contempt of court, in failing to obey an order of the court prohibiting his representing himself in any way as successor to or being connected in any manner with the patent law firm of C. A. Snow & Co., of Washington, D. C.

∴

Two Democrats—Lindsay of Ky., and Pettus, of Ala.—voted with thirty-eight Republicans to kill Senator Teller's resolution of sympathy for the Boers by referring it to the committee on Foreign relations. Included in the 26 Senators who voted against thus killing the resolution were four Republicans—Chandler, of N. H.; Hale, of Me.; Hoar, of Mass.; and Mason of Ill.—and three who are classed as Silver Republicans, Populists, or Independents—Heitfeld, of Idaho; Pettigrew, of S. Dak., and Teller, of Col.

∴

Hon. Martin Maginnis, one of the claimants to a seat in the Senate, has been granted the privilege of the floor of the Senate. Mr. Clark, the other claimant is entitled to that privilege as an ex-Senator.

∴

In slapping public sentiment in the face by reporting against the election of United States Senators by direct vote, which was recently endorsed by more than two-thirds of the House, the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections sought to let the Senate down easy by accompanying that report with another in favor of the Hoar bill for amending the present law so that after a failure to elect a Senator in six ballots, a plurality vote of a legislature shall elect a Senator. The Hoar bill is merely a compromise. Public sentiment demands the election of Senators by direct vote and the demand will sooner or later, have to be met.

∴

The Washington Post flatly charges Postmaster General Smith with hindering investigation into scandalous charges concerning the administration of the Washington city postoffice. Verily, things are getting warm in administration circles, and more than ice and electric fans are needed to lower the official temperature.

∴

Word has been passed among Republican Senators to let everything else go and get the last appropriation bills out of the way in order that adjournment may take place on the 6th inst., as provided by the resolution adopted by the House. The Philippine bill is dead for all time and the Nicaragua Canal bill is dead for this session, and there is to be no reduction of war taxes.

∴

The Senate Committee on Relations with Cuba began its investigation of the wholesale stealing over there, under the Bacon resolution, which was forced down the throats of the Republicans by the Democrats, by calling for information from three departments, War, Navy and Post Office as to receipts and expenditures in Cuba under the jurisdiction of each. The Democratic members of the committee will see that no whitewashing is done.

More Reckless Squandering of American Puplic Moneys.

What will be the effect of McKinley's re-election?" is a question which involves the improbable, even the impossible. It would be just as profitable to discuss the question, "What will be the policy of Augustus Caesar when he again becomes Emperor of Rome?" for there is as much likelihood of his once more sitting on the throne as there is of McKinley getting a second term. "A burnt child dreads the fire," "A scalded cat is afraid of cold water," and the American people certainly have had a sufficient dose of McHannaism to last them a lifetime.

But a French savant once said: "It is the unexpected which happens." On that principle, and on that principle only, is the question worthy of the least consideration.

Thomas Campbell, the author of the greatest long poem in our vernacular, says:

"I watch the wheels of nature's mazy plan and learn the future from the past of man."

That is the correct rule for judging and prophesying as to human conduct.

If McKinley should by any unforeseen and unforeseeable concatination of events be re-elected, unless he experiences a radical change of heart, of which there is no symptom, he will go on as he is going now. Four years more of Republican misrule mean a continuation of such reckless squandering of the people's money as to be justly characterized as "wicked and wanton waste," the growth of trusts until all competition is crushed out and all the power of the business world concentrated in the hands of a few men; the fostering of the high protective tariff system, which has for years prevented this great republic from being the commercial mistress of the world; the complete surrender of the money-making function—which is the supreme function of government—into the tender keeping of the national bank ring; the multiplication of useless offices at home and the multiplication of nauseating scandals abroad; the increase of the standing army to the endangerment of liberties; the cultivation of militarism as part of our political system; a continuance of the preposterous Philippine propaganda; an increasing subserviency to England, which is both deleterious and humiliating; the inauguration of a ship subsidy scheme whereby the masses of the people will be fleeced for the benefit of a handful of favorites; government by carpet-baggers and pro-consuls in halt the islands of the multitudionous seas; the increase of Federal courts and constant augmentation of their powers; further infactions of the Constitution and further sapping of the vital principles of Republican institutions.

With assassination as an adjunct to Republican politics in Kentucky; blackmail as against Republican politics in Philadelphia; embezzlement as an adjunct to Republican politics in Cuba, and with other sins of omission and commission as the sale bill runs, "too tedious to mention," the G. O. P. appears to be headed for what Mr. Mantaliui would denominate "the demonition bowwows."

If it can survive the odoriferous and militarious scandals now pressing upon it and re-elect McKinley, it will be entitled to inscribe "immortality" upon its banners.

Out in Michigan they have sent a few petty Republican thieves to the penitentiary for larcenies connected with the Spanish war; but the chances are ten to one that the bigger thieves who have been operating in Cuba will go scot free.

If such things as are now known to have been done in Cuba are possible within sixty miles of our shores and right under the nose of the administration, what may we not fear to hear when the light is turned upon Republican financiering in the Philippines?

But I am an optomist. Better to sing a jubilante than a miserere. I have implicit reliance in the ultimate good sense, perfect honesty and unyielding patriosm of the American people. In 1874 and in 1876 they arose in their might and in their wrath and hurled the ring-ridden and scandal-stained Republican garty from power. In my judgment they are about to repeat that salutary and righteous performance.

Mr. McKinley's charm of manner, winsome presence and political artfulness make him invincible for the nomination; the scandals accumulating upon his administration render his re-election impossible. He is acting wisely to enlarge his "Canton Cottage." He will need it after high noon, March 4, 1901. In that quiet retreat, "far from the madening crowd," in his capacity as a private citizen, I wish him happiness, prosperity and length of days.—CHAMP CLARK, Representative from Missouri.

ORIGIN OF THE MONTHS' NAMES.

October, November and December Misnomers for Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth Months.

"January was named after the Roman god, Janus; the deity with two faces, one looking into the past and the other gazing forward to the future," writes Clifford Howard, in the June Ladies' Home Journal. "February comes from the Latin word februo, to purify. It was customary for the Romans to observe festivals of purification during that month. March owes its name to the old God of War. Among the Saxons this month was known as Lenct, meaning spring; and this is the origin of our word Lent. April was named from the Latin aperio, to open, in signification of the opening of flowers. The Saxons called the month Eastre, in honor of their Goddess of Spring, from which comes our word Easter. May was named after the Roman goddess Maia, and June was so-called in honor of Juno. July was named in honor of Julius Cæsar, and August gets its name from Auguustus Cæsar. September is from the Latin septem, seven, this being the seventh month according to the old Roman calendar. October, November and December also retain the names by which they were known under the old calendar, when there were but ten months in the year—octo, novem and decem meaning eight, nine and ten."

Raising the Hat an Ancient Salutation.

When a knight of old entered a company of ladies he removed his helmet to indicate that he considered himself among friends, and that there was no need to protect himself. This practice has survived in the custom of raising the hat when saluting a lady.—June Ladies' Home Journal.

The June bride is rehearsing her blushes.

LIKE MANY OTHERS

Clara Kopp Wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Tells what it did for Her.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have seen so many letters from ladies who were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies that I thought I would ask your advice in regard to my condition.

I have been doctoring for four years and have taken different patent medicines, but received very little benefit. I am troubled with backache, in fact my whole body aches, stomach feels sore, by spells get short of breath and am very nervous. Menstruation is very irregular with severe bearing down pains, cramps and backache. I hope to hear from you at once."—CLARA KOPP, Rockport, Ind., Sept. 27, 1898.

"I think it is my duty to write a letter to you in regard to what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I wrote you some time ago, describing my symptoms and asking your advice, which you very kindly gave. I am now healthy and cannot begin to praise your remedy enough. I would say to all suffering women, 'Take Mrs. Pinkham's advice, for a woman best understands a woman's sufferings, and Mrs. Pinkham, from her vast experience in treating female ills, can give you advice that you can get from no other source.'"—CLARA KOPP, Rockport, Ind., April 13, 1899.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEA

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Official tickets will be placed in charge of the officers of each election board, from whom they can be procured by the Democratic voters. Candidates for the following named offices are to be voted for at this election, to wit:

One person for Congress.
Two persons for Representatives.
One person for Sheriff.

One person for Jury Commissioner.

Each district will also elect a committeeman and a primary election board, to consist of a judge of election and two clerks.

The county convention will be held in the Court House, at Bloomsburg, Tuesday, June 12, A. D. 1900, at 11 o'clock a. m.

The members of the standing committee will meet at the place and time of holding the county convention at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing a county chairman and secretary.

CHRISTIAN A. SMALL, Chairman.
R. G. F. KASHINKI, Secretary.

Creasy does not deny one word of my letter of two weeks ago I will admit I made a mistake in my withdrawal card when I inserted it two years ago I should have stated then that I now withdraw in Mr. Creasy's favor, and he and his friends have given me their promised support in 1900. I inserted it, as was stated in Mr. Creasy's reply, so as not to implicate him or any of his friends as having taken part in my withdrawal. He charges, by way of reply, "He and his friends urged and helped place an independent Gold Democrat on the ticket against the regular nominees at the November election of 1898." I was no party to the above, and no one knows it better than Mr. Creasy. But what can you expect? He broke his solemn promises of two years ago and allowances must be made. In the fall of 1898 Mr. Creasy and I spoke at several places together; I did all I could for the regular Democratic nominees. At the general election of 1898 that "Gold Democrat" did not get one vote in Beaver township. Mr. Creasy knows it. But why this controversy? I have made a plain statement of facts. My record as a Democrat is open on all sides for inspection.

I again kindly ask all good Democrats for their support.

Respectfully yours,
C. Z. SCHLICHER.

ROTTENNESS IN CUBA.

It is less than two years since the Spanish were driven from Cuban soil because of their corruption and tyranny.

Already there are charges of gross mismanagement and extravagance by the officials sent there by the McKinley administration. The following charges are made:

The theft of $100,000 from the postal service.

The expenditure of a half million to construct a worthless railroad.

The allowance by the Secretary of War of $150,000 for personal expenses of officials.

The rebuilding of barracks at a cost of $40,000, nominally for school purposes, but really for the benefit of the contractors.

The payment of $250,000 to a Trust Company for handling government money.

It is said that all these matters are well known, and have been called to President McKinley's attention, but they are being suppressed for fear of their effect on the coming campaign.

If this dishonesty and robbery is one of the first results of expansion and can go on in Cuba under our very eyes, how much greater will be the opportunities for plunder in the Philippines. It is unfortunate for the Republican party that these matters have developed so soon.

GOVERNOR STONE TURNED DOWN.

It keeps somebody busy most of the time to correct Governor Stone's blunders. He was elevated to his present position by the Quay machine, and they ought to be proud of him. He has blundered in nearly everything he has done so far.

He appointed Quay United States Senator, and the Senate refused to seat him.

He vetoed the resolution providing for a constitutional amendment, and the Supreme Court has decided that he had no such power, and that the amendment must be submitted to the people.

He appointed a personal friend to the Judgeship in Tioga county, and the people have nominated another Republican, and dropped Stone's candidate at the primaries.

He vetoed the School Appropriation to the extent of a million dollars, and now proceedings have been instituted in Montgomery county to compel the payment of the full amount appropriated.

There is little doubt but that it will succeed, and the Governor's action be declared by the court as a usurpation of authority. Stone's administration is an exhibition of the unwisdom of putting a small man in a large place. His only ability seems be that for colossal blundering.

WHAT IS SAID OF CREASY.

(From the York Gazette.)

It has given satisfaction to Democrats all over the state to learn that "Farmer" Creasy has consented to run again for the legislature. His re-nomination and re-election are considered as practically certain.

During his three terms in the legislature Mr. Creasy made a splendid record and his leadership and influence cannot be spared from Harrisburg in view of the battles about to be made, particularly the struggle for ballot reform.

That confidence in him is not confined to the Democratic party is proved by this splendid testimonial from the Republican Philadelphia North American:

"William T. Creasy is again a candidate for election to the legislature. He has served three terms, and it may be against precedent in his county that he should be given a fourth, but such a precedent ought not to count in the case of a man of his character and calibre. He is honest and able and of such proved worth as a public servant that even party lines may well disappear before his candidacy. Republicans as well as Democrats should vote for him."

It may be so that to ex-Senator Quay and his methods should be charged the corruption, extravagance, wrongs and crimes of the administration of public affairs in this State, but who is responsible for Quay? Back of an individual who commands the influence and asserts the authority that he does, must be a power to sustain him. Does anyone know of any power he has outside or independent, of the Republican party? It is that organization that made him—that backs him, that approves and endorses him, and in revolting against Quay, they are simply attempting to overthrow the instrument, the tool, the agent. If they would rid the State of its vicious, profligate, constitution-defying administrations, they must rid it of Republicanism. That is the power responsible for all the people have to complain of.—Bellefonte Watchman.

"Honest Labor Bears a Lovely Face."

There is nothing more pleasing to look upon than a hearty, ruddy face, gained by honest toil. They are the saving of the nation, these toilers of both sexes, struggling for daily bread.

Pure blood makes them able to keep up the daily round of duty at home, shop or store. If the blood has a taint or impurity, or a run down feeling comes on, the one remedy is Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Medicine for the blood.

REPRESENTATIVE QUESTION.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN.

As we are about to nominate men to represent us in the legislature for the next two years, it seems to me that the Democrats of Columbia county should remember several things. Theoretically, public office is created to subserve the interests of the people. No man has a claim upon an office until the people say it shall be his. No man should be given an office unless he has qualifications to fit him for that office. To elect any man to public position simply because he is poor and needs it, is usually a mistake.

At this time especially, with the many important questions that will arise in the next legislature, we need men of experience and ability, and a knowledge of public affairs. Columbia county stands in the front rank of Democratic counties. She is entitled to be recognized as a leader, but she can get it only by sending men who, by their ability can command that recognition. Don't let us make any mistakes. JACKSONIAN.

The members of the Democratic National Committee are reaping the fruits of their action in locating their national convention outside of a city of the first or second class. Kansas City hotel accommodations are limited, and Kansas City hotel proprietors are taking advantage of that fact. Rates have gone skyward with a bound and Chairman Jones is being bombarded with requests that the convention be taken to some other city. It is natural that the hotel people should want to make all they can out of the convention, but there is such a thing as running their desire to extremes. Outside of Kansas City there would be very little mourning over the removal of the convention to some other place.—Ex.

"KEYSTONE PARK."

An Opportunity for Working Men—40 Lots At Public Auction.

On another page our readers will find a large advertisement of the New England Suburban Improvement Co.'s sale of building lots next Saturday at Keystone Park. The many novel features attending this sale and the inducements offered both to purchasers and others make the event of enough interest to our readers to demand some of our time and space.

Keystone Park, comprising 98 lots, formerly the property of the Citizens' Land Co., is situated on West Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Sts., between the Fair Grounds and the R. & B. R. R. Since acquiring possession, the present owners have kept a large force of men and teams busy making improvements. Streets walks and alleys are being built and graded water mains laid, and the land put in shape for immediate building.

The sale itself is to be at public auction—a method which affords every purchaser a selection at a price established by himself and his neighbors, for the Company's representative assures us that there will be no reserve on any lot offered. Only 40 lots are to be sold, however, as the owners desire to hold the major portion for the rise of value which must come from the building of homes. The terms of sale will be: 10 per cent. cash at sale, 40 per cent more in 5 days, the balance may remain on mortgage or is subject to 5 per cent. discount for cash. Easier terms will however, be made when desired and money to build advanced to any purchaser; to be repaid monthly, the same as rent.

The distribution of presents will doubtless interest all of our readers. 100 articles of beauty and value, such as are displayed in the Company's office, 120 W. Main Street, are to be given away as an attraction to insure a large attendance. The distribution will be made by lot, though in no way or shape a lottery, as no one can spend a cent—the articles given away are to be given absolutely free as a means of advertising. Those who buy have no more chance than the boy in knickerbockers. This alone should be enough to attract as many of our readers as can possibly attend, next Saturday, June 9, at 1:30 p. m.

Dennison Brink is suffering from mental ailments, at his home on Third street. Tuesday night his daughter was startled by a peculiar noise, and hastening to his room, arrived just in time to prevent his leaping from the window. She was unable to do anything to quiet him until some neighbors responded to a call for help, and he was finally pacified. The derangement must have overtaken him suddenly after he retired, as he manifested no signs of insanity before that time. Dr. Arment is the attending physician.

The better class of people of this community detest street profanity, and unbecoming decorum, and yet when it is practiced at their doors, they walk away and neglect their duty to bring such offenders to justice. Peace and good order in any town, can only be had and sustained by the citizen doing his pprt to suppress the violation of the laws of decency and respect, and he who fails to assume and act his portion of upholding the public peace, can hardly be classed a good citizen. If offenders were punished there would be less of it done.

Mr. Charles Watson, a member of the firm of Watson & Company, the well known dry goods house of Philadelphia, and Miss Edith Gosh, an estimable and popular young lady of Danville were married in Christ Episcopal Church, Danville, by the rector, Rev. Erskin Wright, Thursday morning last. The affair was a quiet one and was witnessed by only immediate relatives and friends. The newly wedded couple passed through Bloomsburg in a cab and went to Espy where they boarded the train for an extended trip through Canada.

Charles Krug, aged ten years, son of Charles Krug, was accidently shot in the foot with a twenty two callibre revolver, by a playmate, Charles Jones, at the barn of the formers father, Saturday afternoon. It appears that the two youngsters had gone to the barn to shoot mark. Jones loaded the weapon and leveling it at a certain object pulled the trigger. It missed fire and the boys concluded that the cartridge was no good. In attempting to remove it Jones pulled the trigger the second time and the load was discharged, the ball entering his companion's foot. Dr. Willits was at once summoned and dressed the wound.

A Narrow Margin.

Normal School 1, Hazleton snow water. That in brief is the story of Saturday afternoon's base ball game on Normal Athletic Field. It was the closest and by far the most exciting contest of the season, and the victory carried with it more glory than any game that Normal has won in a long while. There were absolutely no grounds upon which to claim that the victory was due to luck. It was won clearly on merit, by two good hits and the Hazleton team's sympathizers at home can take solace from the fact that their pets put up an article of ball that win the majority of games. There were but two misplays made, both of which were of an excusable nature.

It is safe to say that a more happy crowd of people than the one which filed out of the enclosure after the game, never left a ball field. The score:

Earned run—Bloomsburg. Three base hit—Aldinger. Two base hit—Ward. Struck out—By Williams 5; by Breham 1. Base on balls—Off Williams 1. Left on bases—Hazleton 7; Normal 3. Umpire—Splain. Time—1.20.

NEW YORK FOR BRYAN

State Democracy So Instructs National Delegates.

DAVID B. HILL CONTROLS CONVENTION

The Chicago Platform Ignored at His Behest—What Promised to Be a Stormy Gathering Ended In Harmony.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Delegates at large to the national Democratic convention:

Alternates: Frank Campbell of Steuben for Mr. Hill, Jacob Ruppert, Jr., of New York for Richard Croker, C. Morgan Sanford of Amsterdam for Mr. Murphy and James Shevlin of Kings for Augustus Van Wyck.

No reaffirmation of the Chicago platform of 1896, but a declaration that the party in the state will support the platform of the Kansas City convention. No war tax in time of peace; parity of gold and silver as currency; abolition of all customs and tariffs between Porto Rico and the United States; condemnation of trusts and monopolies; opposition to entangling alliances; just and liberal pension laws and election of United States senators by the people.

This is the substance of the work done by the Democratic state convention yesterday in a convention that gave promise of being very stormy, but which ended up quietly. The particular feature of the convention was the domination of affairs by ex-Senator David B. Hill. The silver men profess to be satisfied with the result.

The subcommittee of the committee on resolutions, consisting of Messrs. Schraub, Grady, York, Milne and Mack, at a late hour in the afternoon drafted the platform of the Democratic party and submitted the same to the committee on resolutions.

DAVID B. HILL.

Senator Grady presented the report of the subcommittee, with a strong appeal for harmony, and made a very earnest request for its adoption and for a hearty indorsement of W. J. Bryan. "The indorsement of the resolutions by the committee," he said, "would serve the purpose every bit as well as if the committee themselves went to Kansas City to indorse him."

The meeting was held behind closed doors in Senator Murphy's room at the Hoffman House, and judging from the sounds that issued therefrom the debates and arguments were of a somewhat heated nature.

Norman E. Mack proposed an amendment of the resolutions by inserting the clause for the reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, which was defeated by a vote of 33 to 7. Mr. Mack said afterward that the adoption was not unanimous and that they did not get his vote because no mention was made of the Chicago platform. "No mention of the Chicago platform being equivalent to the repudiation thereof," he remarked in concluding his address to the committee. In the convention, however, Mr. Mack seconded the motion to adopt the platform as presented.

MORE ABOUT NEELY.

HAVANA, June 5.—"What a thief that fellow Neely was," remarked Acting Director of Posts Bristow after inquiring as to the amount taken in May, 1899, and ascertaining that it was $31,312.95. Neely's monthly average was about $17,000. His system of bookkeeping was simplicity itself. Apparently he merely divided the amounts received, taking one-half for himself and accounting for the other.

Mr. Bristow says he is almost sure that the extent of the steal will amount to something between $80,000 and $100,000, but that this will not touch the item of surcharge stamps, which is $411,000. As to how many of these were burned and how many sold it is impossible to obtain definite information. As many have been traced it is known positively that not all were destroyed, but if Neely sold, say, $50,000 or $100,000 worth it would not be surprising, Mr. Bristow thinks, to find them scattered all over the world.

The postal inspectors say it is astonishing that a system so rotten could have been concealed beyond the first month. Every day only adds to the surprises.

General Wheeler Promoted.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The following nominations have been made by the president: Brigadier General Joseph W. Wheeler, U. S. V., to be brigadier general, U. S. A.; John K. Gladden of Maryland to be collector of customs, district of Annapolis, Md. Postmasters—John F. Nesbett, at Corona, N. Y.; Clark Grier, at Dublin, Ga.; Charles S. Shindel, at Tamaqua, Pa.; Walter K. Landis, at San Juan, Porto Rico.

New Mexico's New Capitol.

SANTA FE, June 5.—The new capitol of New Mexico was dedicated yesterday with imposing ceremonies. This quaint old city was thronged with visitors. The houses and streets were especially decorated. A grand military and civic pageant was reviewed from the capitol steps by Governor Otero. At 3 o'clock the governor's salute was fired and the monster flag raised on the lantern cupola.

Street Incident."—"My dear sir," exclaimed Lawyer Bartholomew Livingston, meeting the Rev. Dr. Archibald Windham on the village street, "What does this mean? I thought you were laid up with all sorts of bad diseases!"

"And so I was," replied the reverend gentleman, "I had an attack of indigestion and from that time on my whole system has been in a disordered condition until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has put me on my feet and cured all my stomach troubles."

"I don't doubt it," said the lawyer. "This same medicine cured my wife of rheumatism and my little girl of scrofula. When they say it's the best medicine money can buy, they only tell the truth."

"Yes, yes, so they do," replied the minister, and the two passed on.

McClure's Magazine for June.

The June number of McClure's is particularly strong and varied in its contents, both as regards fiction and special articles. President Kruger of the South African republic is portrayed in an acute character-study by F. Edmund Garrett, who has had the advantage of personal contact with the remarkable Boer leader, and is thoroughly familiar with his past career and with the political history of the Boers. Excellent portraits of Kruger and his wife are included. J. Lincoln Steffens, of the New York Commercial Advertiser, relates some striking "incidents of conflict" between Governor Roosevelt and the party leaders, and considers whether his first term as governor has turned out to be a successful experiment. A fully illustrated article on the Cape Nome Gold Fields, by William J. Lampton, describes life in Nome City, which is "the largest of its age in the world," and gives the latest and exactest information concerning the possibilities of this new cold region, one that is much richer than even the Klondike. "Experiments in Flying," by O. Chanute, is an account of the author's own flying machines, one of which was so constructed as to maintain successfully a speed of seventeen miles an hour. The article is illustrated from photographs.

One of the most striking features of the number is a thrilling naval story of the Japanese-Chinese war by Adachi Kinnosuke, who is almost the only existing Japanese writer whose literary reputation has been established by his work in the English language. How the "Hiyei" ran the gauntlet of the Chinese Squadron, how the valiant Yamaji fulfilled his dedication by his dying father to the service of the Emperor of Japan, all this is graphically and thrillingly told. The pictures are full of action and unusually effective. In addition to this, there are several other good short stories. There is also a true historical story by the Rev. C. T. Brady—the story of the greatest fight in the history of American privateers. Reid's great fight in the "General Armstrong" against the British." The S. S. McClure Co., New York.

It's about as difficult to win a name as to name a winner.

Rudyard Kipling, Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, Ian Maclaren, Cyrus Townsend Brady, Julia Magruder and Mr. Burton Kingsland are among the contributors to the June Ladies' Home Journal. Some of its notable features are: "The Passion Play This Year," "The Richest Woman in America" (Hetty Green), "How Some Familiar Things Came to Be," and "The Masterpiece of Mary, Queen of Scots," picturing an apron worked by that unfortunate sovereign while in prison awaiting the executioner. Dr. S. Weir Mitchell's article, "When the College is Hurtful to a Girl," is sure of a wide reading; so are Ian Maclaren's views on "The Minister and His Vacation." Mr. Kipling's "Just So" story humorously accounts for the kangaroo's long hind legs, and is the best of his series. The fiction features of the June Journal are the opening chapters of Julia Magruder's new serial, "The Voice in the Choir," and "The Autobiography of a Girl." A drawing by A. B. Frost, "The Auction at the Farm," a series of photographs showing "Sol Smith Russell in His Summer Home," and views "Through Picturesque America," lend pictorial interest to the excellent number. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

It is probably not true that the horsey girl always makes a nagging wife.

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS THE FOOT-EASE TRADE MARK.—Justice Laughlin, in Supreme Court, Buffalo, has ordered a permanent injunction, with costs, and a full accounting of sales, to issue against Paul B. Hudson, the manufacturer of the foot powder called "Dr. Clark's Foot Powder," and also a retail dealer of Brooklyn, restraining them from making or selling the Dr. Clark's Foot Powder, which is declared, in the decision of the Court, an imitation and infringement of "Foot-Ease," the powder to shake into your shoes. Allen S. Olmsted, of Le Roy, N. Y., is the owner of the trade-mark "Foot-Ease." Similar suits will be brought against others who are now infringing on the Foot-Ease trade-mark and common law rights.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 66 Warren street, New York.

WELCOME BRITISH

Lord Roberts Tells of the Occupation of Pretoria.

Boers Retire In Good Order, With Forces Intact.

Future Operations In South Africa a Matter of Conjecture. Roberts Rests.

LONDON, June 6.—Until the situation in the neighborhood of Pretoria is enlightened the officials here, as well as others, will find difficulty in prognosticating Lord Roberts' immediate programme. It appears evident that the Boer commander in chief, General Botha, with all his men, withdrew in good order, probably along the Delagoa Bay railroad, with the view of joining President Kruger. So the Transvaal forces remain practically intact, with President Kruger and Steyn and General Botha and Secretary of State Reitz all safe and in a position to continue the direction of affairs. The more optimistic see in the fact that President Kruger's wife and General Botha's wife were left at Pretoria an indication that the president does not count on a long resistance. In any case it will probably take Lord Roberts at least a week to organize a campaign of pursuit.

A belated dispatch from Mafeking, dated May 31, announces the British occupation of Malmani, where 200 Boers surrendered.

A special dispatch from Lourenco Marques, dated June 5, says:

"General Buller and Christian Botha met at Laingsnek at Buller's request, when a three days' armistice was agreed upon. The dispatch adds that the British have evacuated Utrecht."

"The occupation of the town passed off most satisfactorily, and the British flag is now hoisted on top of the government offices. The troops met with a much more enthusiastic reception than I anticipated. The Third battalion of the Grenadier guards lined the square when the march past took place.

"Owing to their having been on duty at some distance around the town, very few cavalry and infantry were able to take part in the ceremony.

"Several of our officers who had been prisoners were among the onlookers."

LORD ROBERTS' REPORT.

The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, June 5, 12:55 p. m.:

"Just before dark yesterday the enemy were beaten back from nearly all the positions they had been holding, and Ian Hamilton's mounted infantry followed them within 2,000 yards of Pretoria, through which they retreated hastily.

"De Lisle then sent an officer with a flag of truce into the town, demanding its surrender in my name. Shortly before midnight I was awakened by two officials of the South African Republic, Sandberg, military secretary to Commandant General Botha, and a general officer of the Boer army, who brought me a letter from Botha, proposing an armistice for the purpose of settling the terms of surrender.

"I replied that I would gladly meet the commandant general the next morning, but that I was not prepared to discuss any terms, as the surrender of the town must be unconditional. I asked for a reply by daylight, as I had ordered the troops to march on the town as soon as it was light.

"In his reply Botha told me that he had decided not to defend Pretoria and that he trusted the women, children and property would be protected. At 1 a. m. today, while on the line of march I was met by three of the principal officials with a flag of truce, stating their wish to surrender the town.

"It was arranged that Pretoria should be taken possession of by her majesty's troops at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

"Mrs. Botha and Mrs. Kruger are both in Pretoria. Some few of the British prisoners have been taken away, but the majority are still at Waterval. Over 100 of the officers are in Pretoria. The few I have seen are looking well."

Dewey Takes Another Trip.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Admiral Dewey left here last night at 9 o'clock via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for his trip to Columbus, Detroit and Grand Rapids. With him were Mrs. Dewey, Lieutenant H. H. Caldwell and Mr. J. H. Maddy, representing the railroad company. On the center window of each of the cars of the train was a miniature admiral's flag, with its four stars on the field of blue, the only decorative feature apparent on the train. A crowd of several hundred people saw the party off. The trip west is simply a social one and has, the admiral said just before leaving, no political significance.

Bad Fire Near Quebec.

QUEBEC, June 6.—The lumber plant at Ste. Etienne du Saguenay belonging to Prince Bros. & Co. of Quebec was destroyed by fire this morning. The loss will reach $400,000. Forty families are homeless as a result of the conflagration, and it is believed several perished in the flames. The telegraph office and other buildings are destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been started by colonists.

New York Fish Statistics.

ALBANY, June 6.—The output of fish fry and yearling fish of the state hatcheries for the month of May aggregated 66,702,010. This included 1,475,000 brook trout, 134,300 brown trout, 51,000 rainbow trout, 3,320,310 lake trout, 1,000 red throat trout, 3,795,000 frostfish, 2,721,000 shad, 4,490,000 muscalonge, 50,000,000 pike, 50,000 shrimp and 2,400 salmon.

Mending the Sultan's Tubs.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 6.—The government has signed a contract with the Ansaldo company of Genoa for the renovation of eight Turkish ironclads and are negotiating with the Krupp company for rearming them.

Indiana Democrats.

Beauty is born in the blood. Beauty is more than "skin deep," it is blood deep. When the blood is tainted by disease the flesh will feel it and the skin will show it. Sallow or muddy complexions, pimples, blotches and eruptions, are only the surface signs of impure blood. Face washes, lotions, complexion powders, may palliate the evils, but they cannot cure the disease. The only cure is to cleanse the blood of the poisonous matter, which is the cause of the outbreak in the flesh and skin. Impure blood can be absolutely purified by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Its effect on flesh and skin is marked. Sores heal and disappear. The skin becomes smooth, and regains its natural color. The eyes brighten and sparkle, the whole body is radiant with the brightness and beauty of health. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky, or other intoxicant, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assists the action of the "Discovery," by cleansing the system of clogging matter.

Sheriff W. W. Black witnessed the execution of William Hummel, the quadruple murderer, at the Williamsport jail Tuesday. He said the condemned man walked firmly to the gallows, made a short speech, in which he expressed a hope of meeting his friends hereafter. He bade all good bye, the black cap was adjusted, the trap was sprung and fourteen minutes later he was pronounced dead. Contrary to expectations the body was not delivered to the Williamsport theatrical manager who had contracted with Hummel to exhibit it throughout the country. Prominent citizens of Williamsport had arranged for an indignation meeting if Manager Bubb had insisted upon his claims for the body.

FROM EAST BENTON.

The corner stone of the new St. James Reformed church, at Van Camp, was laid last Sunday. This is a point in Rev. Houtz's charge. The occasion was witnessed by an immense throng of people. A collection was lifted which aggregated forty-five dollars. Rev. Dr. John D. Thomas, of Bloomsburg preached a very profound and most impressive sermon for the occasion. He pointed out that God reciprocates every effort of man in proportion that his efforts are in earnest determination in the advancement of God's Kingdom among men. The most selfish man is the one in any community who has never met with reverses, but has always continuously prospered. The efforts of the St. James people in the new church enterprise has thus far been a success.

We were visited by a copious rain storm last Saturday evening which refreshed vegetation. The rain did not reach over a mile south of us, and from that point to Jonestown it barely rained enough to lay the dust.

Considerable interest is manifested in the primaries regarding the various candidates, especially for those of representatives.

It has been a very dry season in our valley thus far, grass and grain being the principal sufferers. Corn and oats will fare better later on.

For Rent.

Two of the best rooms for offices in the town, second floor front COLUMBIAN building. Will be rented together or separately. Water, steam heat, electric light, and all modern conveniences. Terms low. Inquire of Geo. E. Elwell. tf

McKinley's Latest Portrait.

A Splendid Autograph Picture of the President Free to Everybody.

A short time ago President McKinley sat for a photograph, which he has pronounced the best ever secured. A copy of this portrait, in colors, with facsimile of the President's signature, on each picture, will be given free with every copy of the great "Philadelphia Sunday Press" next Sunday (June 10). It is a souvenir everyone is certain to prize, both because of its merit as a work of art and its timeliness, in view of the fact that McKinley is certain to be renominated at the National Convention week after next. The size of the picture is 14 by 20 inches, and every one will be perfect. The demand will be great; hence it will be well to order next Sunday's "Press" early.

Montour Democracy.

The Montour County Democratic Convention met at Danville on Monday and made the following nominations: For legislature, W. Kase West; for register and recorder, William L. Sidler; for jury commissioner, Charles M. Kinn; for sheriff, Michael Breckbill; for associate judge, F. G. Blee. J. D. Howery and Harry Billmeyer were chosen delegates to the State convention and L. F. Chestnut county chairman.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"We, the representatives of the Democratic party of Montour county, in Convention assembled, believing the greatest good to the greatest number of our people can be secured only by the success of the Democratic principles, reaffirm our devotion and allegiance there to. We commend and endorse the wise leadership of our party in the State, which has so greatly increased our representation in the State legislature and congress and pledge to it our hearty support.

We endorse and commend the course of our present member of Congress, Hon. R. K. Polk, in his unswerving loyalty to the principles of Democracy, and his untiring and efficient service in the interests of his constituency.

The twelfth annual reunion of the Hess family will be held at Rupert Grove, Thursday, June 14. An excellent program has been prepared and will be rendered after the refreshments. All members of the family are invited to attend.

A merchant who always advertises the truth will never be caught lying.

There's a place where profit stops and swindle begins, in priceing and selling merchandise. A merchant is a fool who expects to rob the people in June, and see the same people come back in July to be re-robbed. The same dog seldom has an opportunity to bite the same person twice in the same spot.

From Asylum to Grave.

Discharged From Asylum as Cured. Killed on His Way Home.

Theodore R. Staley, a prominent merchant of Pittston, fell off the Black Diamond express at Sugar Notch tast Thursday afternoon and was instantly killed. He was discharged from Danville that morning, being pronounced cured of insanity, and went to Philadelphia on business. There he took the Black Diamond express, due in Wilkesbarre at 4:32, and soon after it left the mountain grade at Sugar Notch he fell from the rear of the train. No one saw him fall.

The body was found soon afterward by some miners and the Coroner notified. Death had evidently been instantaneous and the man's neck was broken. He started in the jewelry business at Pittston in 1872, and about a year ago had serious business reverses, and his mind became affected. He was sent to Danville and steadily improved, until Thursday morning he was discharged.

Mrs. Staley was with her husband in the rear of the car shortly before the accident occurred. She says she went for a drink of water, leaving her husband on the observation platform, and when she returned he was missing. She thought he had gone into the smoking car, but when the train reached Pittston, and he was not on it, she notified the conductor. Soon afterward she received a telegram from Wilkesbarre saying he had been killed.

Mr. Staley was a son of W. B. Staley who was a resident of Bloomsburg for many years. Theodore was born here. They moved to Pittston twenty years or more ago.
